You are about to embark on an odyssey of the imagination, so come on board and take your station as we explore new poetic worlds.

Like the early 14th century explorer discovered new lands and claimed them in honor, so shall you, the reader, have the same opportunity.

These untitled poems have spaces for you to write in what you think is a good title.

If those were your poems what would YOU name it?

Like history's early explorer's there are even hidden treasures to find, interspersed far left of the pages, of poems

So explore these poems often and soon as you sail the stars of the Galleon Moon!
