Kyler was a street kid skateboarder once, and then later a heroin addict that hit rock bottom. Beaten and broken, her only salvation was suicide. After an overdose, she was saved and slowly aided back to health and sanity by a doctor that soon became the only father she'd ever known. She fought her way through the drugs and demons of her past to learn to love and trust again, finding a piece of serenity in her skating and her life one day, one minute, one breath at a time.
