PERMANENT MAKE UP FOR LIPS EBOOKS 2019

Author: Anna Savina

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

In this first interactive book I would like to tell you about makeup procedures which have successfully combined both art and modern cosmetology. Many women often tell stories of how this new technology has transformed their lives, given them renewed confidence and even inspired them to improve their lives!

I have been working in this field for over 20 years now and I still find myself amazed at some of the results and inspired by its seemingly limitless capabilities. I have spent countless hours experimenting with different pigments, needles and hand movements to try and find the best ways to apply permanent makeup and then pass these skills on to other young professionals in my field.

My methods and application are not necessarily the only way to perform each procedure, this is a new technology and it is more about expressing individuality but keeping within the guidelines laid down in the training.

I hope this book will encourage all of you to immerse yourself into the world of permanent makeup, hopefully learning something new, being able to apply this to your own portfolio of work and hopefully enhancing the lives of your clients....
