The most horrifying threat is one that catches you when you least expect it. Jean Carmelo had arrived in Port-au-Prince on Monday. The following afternoon, everything turned for the worst. A magnitude 7.0 earthquake delivered the most shocking event Haiti had ever seen. Millions were caught off guard. Hundreds of thousands lost their lives. Based on a true story, author Will Loiseau writes about being at the epicenter before and after one of the world's most devastating natural disasters.
