"It's always a blast talking with Sammy Hagar, and within this lively read, he's considerably charitable in giving me the story of this "hair metal"-era smash hit from the mighty Van Halen."u003cbr /u003eu003cbr /u003e

In fact, Hagar waxes lyrical about the "magical moments on OU812. We could do no wrong. We just said, let's start recording today. We just made a date. We had come off a very lengthy tour for 5150 and Eddie had a bunch of riffs he was jamming around. I had a bunch of lyrics in notebooks that I had been thinking about and writing. And we just put them together and jammed in the studio. It was just complete, simple, magic."
